JCCC transfer program to MidAmerica Nazarene University • 2007-2008 Catalog

Criteria for admission to the Teacher Education Program:

- Acceptable, formal application to the Teacher Education Program
- Two satisfactory recommendations by full-time faculty members
- At least 28 semester hours of college course work (exclusive of developmental course work)
- A cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 in all program stipulated course work completed at the time of application (this does not include OT Literature, NT Literature and Christian Beliefs)
- "B-" or better in English Composition I, Public Speaking, computer literacy (or demonstrated competency), Intermediate Algebra (or demonstrated competency) and all course work in the major.
- No pending disciplinary probation.
- No record of being convicted of a felony or crime involving dishonesty, a controlled substance, or a crime against a child.
- PPST scores of 174 or better in math, 173 or better in reading and 172 or better in writing. The PPST should be taken in spring of the sophomore year before transferring to MNU. Students who do not have passing scores on the PPST may be limited on courses they are eligible to take. The CBT (computer-based test) is acceptable.
- Show proof of liability insurance at the time of registration for each semester.
- Approval by the Teacher Education Committee.
- Students are encouraged to contact Brad King at MNU early on for advising and transcript evaluation.
