Verse[s] of the Week
For I think God has displayed us, the apostles, in last place, like men condemned to die: we have become a spectacle to the world and to angels and to men. We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty; we are poorly clothed, roughly treated, homeless; we labor, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; when we are slandered, we entreat. We are, even now, like the world’s garbage, like the filth of all things.
1 Corinthians 4:9-13

And Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David, to be registered along with Mary, who was engaged to him and was pregnant. While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. Then she gave birth to her firstborn Son, and she wrapped Him snugly in cloth and laid Him in a feeding trough—because there was no room for them at the inn.
Luke 2:4-7

Contests!
How well do you know Christmas? Try these:
1. Who sent the first Christmas card?
2. Who introduced to England to setting & decorating Christmas trees?
3. December 25 is actually the date of which pagan holiday?
4. Who delivers Christmas gifts to children in Syria?
5. When is Advent Sunday?
6. In which year did the Pope revisit Christmas, to celebrate the Pope’s visit?

Add this awesome tune to your playlist! Send suggestions for next week’s song to rcoonedig@mnu.edu.
