Housing Questionnaire

MidAmerica Nazarene University

Housing Policy
MidAmerica Nazarene University is, by definition and mission, a residential university. In support of this aspect of the University’s character, the Board of Trustees has established a policy requiring most students to live on campus. The policy is that all unmarried students under the age of twenty-two (22), not living with parents or grandparents, must live on campus if they take more than eleven (11) semester hours of classes. Exceptions to this residence policy are administered by the Housing Committee.
