Open for applicants immediately and ending June 17, 2010

Head Women’s Volleyball Coach

The Head Coach is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the program, including but not limited to recruiting, scheduling, training, monitoring academic progress, promotions, fundraising/friendraising and coaching team members. The Head Coach is required to abide by the rules and regulations established by MidAmerica Nazarene University, the Heart of America Athletic Conference (HAAC), and the NAIA. MNU is a member of the NAIA at the Division I level. This is a full time, twelve month position.

MidAmerica is now inviting applications from highly qualified professionals who have proven track records in leadership, coaching, and discipline-based community service for the position of the Head Women’s Volleyball Coach.

Candidates for the above position should possess a commitment to Christian higher education, utilize servant leadership style of leadership, and be willing to assume the duties listed in the following general position description.

Position Description: Head Women’s Volleyball Coach

- Recruit, train and coach members of the program
- Oversee assistant coaches and peripheral members of the program staff
- Actively promote through public relations and fundraising, the athletic program
- Generate additional funds for the support of the program
- Organize and schedule practice sessions
- Annually propose an effective and competitive schedule for approval by the Athletic Director
- Make annual budget proposals for the betterment of the program and University
- Responsibly expend allocated budget and ensure that the budget balances each fiscal year
- Organize and administer the recruiting of prospective student-athletes in accordance with the NAIA, HAAC and MidAmerica Nazarene University policies and procedures
- Recommend scholarship awards for student-athletes
• Responsible for tracking the admissions and eligibility process involving recruited student-athletes, and for working collaboratively with the Compliance Office in this regard
• Responsible for monitoring and supporting the student-athletes academic progress
• Responsible for complying with the rules and regulations of the NAIA as it relates to the program
• Represent MidAmerica Nazarene University and the program in a professional manner

Qualifications: Each candidate must meet the following qualifications and any others listed specifically for each position on the MNU Website.

Bachelors Degree required, master’s degree preferred. Three to five years of collegiate coaching experience including effective leadership, communication, coaching and recruiting skills is preferred.

Compensation: The successful candidates will be awarded a 12-month contract with full benefits including retirement, health insurance, and dental insurance. Salary will be highly competitive with similar positions at peer institutions.

Application: Interested individuals who meet the criteria outlined above should send the following documentation via priority email to Rick Fields, MNU Athletic Office (Send to rfields@mnu.edu). Questions may be addressed to this email address or by telephone to 913-971-3751.

• Complete curriculum Vita
• Statement of faith, including personal faith history and a vision for integrating faith and learning in higher education (2 pages maximum)
• Description of the candidate’s vision for the college or school for which the s/he is applying (2 pages maximum)

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled.

MidAmerica Nazarene University is interested in reviewing applications from qualified members of traditionally underrepresented groups in America, including women and racial and ethnic minorities.