April 2015

Welcome to MidAmerica Nazarene University and MAX 2015. We are excited that you are here and hope that you can make new friends, explore MNU and discover new opportunities while you are here.

Even though MAX is just a couple of days, it will provide you an opportunity to experience life at the university, learn about outstanding academic programs, hear about our outstanding faculty and discover why MNU is clearly the place for you. Through its programs and Christ-centered atmosphere you will have an opportunity to Learn, Grow, Serve and Lead as you prepare for God’s plan for your life. Our sincere hope is that you will find it to be a place where God can speak to your hopes and dreams.

Have a great time and catch the Pioneer Spirit!

David J. Spittal
President

On behalf of your Field NYI, greetings and welcome to MAX@MNU 2015! We are excited you made the trip to MNU, your regional Christian college. We have an exciting three days planned for you. This event is an awesome opportunity to make some new friends and to see some old ones. The North Central Field is a welcoming family of believers. You will also enjoy the excitement of Liberal Arts Talent in the Bell Cultural Events Center, Tipping Point, Smith Hall, Cook Center and Osborne, as well as Bible Quizzing in the Cunningham Family Life Center, and athletics all over campus.

You will experience just a small portion of what college life is like on our campus. We want you to relax and enjoy your time here on campus. If there is anything we can do for you or to make your experience better, please don’t hesitate to stop one of us or stop by the front desk at Cook Center. Also, don’t forget to download the MAXMNU app on YAPP to stay up-to-date with everything MAX-related. (See 3 easy steps below.)

A much appreciated thank you to the Field NYI Council and workers for all their effort in planning and carrying out an event of this size. Each one of them has given unselfishly. We are a council that is committed to seeing youth on this field use their gifts and talents to honor God. Wow, what a time God has in store for us!!!

Thanks to the entire MNU campus, College Church of the Nazarene and Dr. Spittal for partnering with us for this Field event.

Now, let the talents begin!

Paul considered the subject of spiritual gifts important enough to address at length three times in the New Testament. His words are strong: the gifts are given by the Spirit based on God’s grace, not our own worthiness, and are given for the good of the whole body of Christ. Gifts are from the Spirit and should serve to unify, not divide us; the use of gifts to help the user and the recipient grow to maturity and stability in faith. Perhaps his strongest admonition is in Romans 12:6, where he says (paraphrase), “If you have a gift, USE IT with all the spiritual power you have!”

The principles used here can also apply to the use of one’s talents. Our talent is a gift from God, and an indication of His grace, not our specialness. Our talents are to be used to help the church. Our goal is unity and maturity. God expects us to develop and use the talents we have to become the best we can be, with his power flowing through us as our spiritual resource.

MIDAMERICA EXTREME is a vehicle by which talent can be developed, channeled, and used for Jesus. Teens are in a tug-of-war; the world wants their talents, their very lives - and so does the Church! We must be diligent to provide quality opportunities for personal development that challenge youth to reach their fullest potential while helping them realize that when they do so, IN CHRIST, the rewards and fulfillment have eternal significance that the world cannot offer. There is no room in the Kingdom for half-heartedness in the cloak of false humility--we must urge our teens to reach for the stars, because they know the One who made them!

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT is a necessary part of MAX, yet within the context of being all we can be in Christ--not for personal gain.

COMPETITION is also a part of MAX, yet again within a Christian understanding and with an attitude of the following: “When I compete, I compete against what I know I can do. If I do my best, I am a winner. Competing with others helps me try harder. Runners will tell you that the better times are set when one is running against a competitor, rather than alone. My attitude toward my competitor must first reflect that we are there to help each other become better. If he receives the trophy, I am a part of his victory, because I helped him to run faster, sing better, jump higher. If I receive the award, I feel the same about him.”

Trophies and awards provide a secondary motivation, realizing that this is necessary to their stage of adolescence, and helps the process. What is most important is that I know that I am better, and that everyone else is better, because I have participated. Since Jesus is the source of talent for all of us, I can rejoice in Him for the talent of all. I can rest assured that He will use me (and others) in the place where my talents can best function, and be happy for that rather than becoming bitter because someone else has more talent in a certain area than myself.

It is extremely important that NYI leaders work with young people (and parents) in understanding the Christian view of competition. We cannot shield our youth from competition -- they are now and will continue to be involved in competition in their lives in school, job, etc. What we must do is help them function effectively with a Christian perspective.

What are some of the implications? A Bible quiz director who emphasizes the importance of the scriptures and a love for the “neighbor” team on the 20th question when the score is tied...A teen who takes the time to compliment each person in his vocal competition event after they have performed, even though his voice was clearly superior...A basketball coach who deals more with how his guys play together and handle themselves, than with teaching intimidation or complaining about officiating...A sponsor who, instead of challenging an obviously unfair decision, helps the teens under his supervision understand that, though life is not always fair, we can do all things through Christ. A District President who, after a lost volleyball match, witnesses to the girls about God’s love and strength. I have seen all of these in MAX@MNU competitions, and know that those teens involved carried away perspectives about competition forever changed by their experience.

Thirdly, MidAmerica Extreme is LOCAL INVOLVEMENT. As is true with all NYI efforts, everything we do at all levels is geared to involve local teens in an on-going, year long ministry. MAX is not just a time when each district heads to MidAmerica for a single weekend of fun and competition. MAX is a process of involvement in talent development from the local church to the zone to the district to the field and back to the local church. No matter what level a teen operates at and achieves, he is a winner.

The district qualifying coordinator and competition directors must do all they can to help local churches develop MAX participation in their church. It may begin as early as summer, then in the district convention, the zone tour, in workshops, at festivals, with whatever means they may have to promote teens finding their talents and developing them for Jesus. The district qualifying event then becomes more than a “once-a-year, hang up a sign, and let’s see who goes to MidAmerica” day. It becomes the culmination of what has been happening in local churches during the months prior to MAX. MAX@MNU provides a final climax to a year’s work, but it is also a “launching pad” in to MAX for the local church for the next year as teens return to their churches “fired up” and ready to do more.

This is why each level of MAX must be able to stand alone, have merit, and be valid. Trophies and awards should be given at the local, zone, district and field levels. If a teen does not “advance” to the next level of competition, whatever he did achieve is significant. More teens will be involved and more talent will be developed. Districts receive the eternal rewards for the number of teens who made an effort to participate and improve, whether or not they ever win the MAX@MNU grand trophy.

Finally, MidAmerica Extreme is TRAINING FOR LEADERSHIP. This area is where we have won or lost the battle for the church twenty years before we realize we fought it. Some of us remember the “good ‘ole days” of NYPS service. The programs weren't always that good, but what happened inside of us was. The NYPS hour was largely abandoned in our media-blitzed age. Yet MAX can fill the void in helping our teens become equipped for leadership, in public ministry, in discipline, and in working well with others. Whether it’s singing, public speaking, creative writing, art, math/business, sermon (Bible exposition), or quizzing; a teen is developing his or her own leadership skills. Individual and team sports provide an arena of leadership development that will “plug-in” to the church now and for years to come.

With all the modern conveniences of our day, teens can be bored easily. MAX can be an element of the total NYI program that can challenge them. Being a part of the MAX program at all levels can be exciting!

What does it take to make it happen? As in all other programs within the total ministry of Nazarene Youth International, good adult leadership is SO important. The good news is that teens are not the only ones who reap the benefits of being involved in MAX. As leaders, adults can grow from MAX. Let’s make it happen!

NAZARENE YOUTH CONFERENCE
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
JULY 8 THROUGH 12, 2015
NYC2015.COM

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day
our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not
into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
forever.
Amen.
The winner of the match is best two out of three games. Rally scoring is used, and standard high school rules will be followed in all other instances. Each team is allowed two time outs per game. No jewelry is to be worn during competition.
