PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Assistant Professor of Counselor Education (Liberty) July 2013 -- Present
 I teach and supervise graduate students in counselor education at the MidAmerica Nazarene University, Liberty, MO campus.
- Resident Faculty Supervisor (Ashland Campus) 05/2009 –July 2013
 I supervised the academic and clinical activities of Lindsey Wilson College School of Professional Counseling graduate students at the Ashland Campus. I also supervised the Counseling center at Ashland Community and Technical College. This center catered for the counseling needs of students, staff and members of the community.

- Intern and Assistant Director of Care January, 2004-January, 2008
I worked at the Counseling Center of the College Hill Presbyterian Church Cincinnati, as an intern and as the assistant director of care. My duties included combining administrative and clinical counseling functions. I carried out about 25 hours of counseling weekly. I also organized and supervised about 25 volunteer paraprofessionals who provided specific services to clients at the center.
- Juvenile Corrections Officer 2002-2003
Hamilton County Juvenile Court, Cincinnati, OH (2002 to 2003), I resigned in order to focus on school work. My responsibilities included overseeing the pods where the inmates stayed and monitoring the facility from the control booth.
- Upholsterer 1999-2001
Casco Manufacturing Solutions, Cincinnati, OH (1999-2001). My duties were to build and upholster furniture and some hospital equipment.
- Teacher 1996-1999
Wesley International Theological Seminary, Owerri, Nigeria (1996-1999). My duties included teaching college level courses to undergraduate students. I taught mostly cross-cultural courses.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Assistant Professor July 2013 to Present
I teach graduate students in counselor education training at MidAmerica Nazarene University, Liberty, MO campus.
- Assistant Professor May 2009 to July 2013
I taught at Lindsey Wilson College School of Professional Counseling as an assistant professor; I taught graduate and undergraduate students in counselor training. Some of the classes I taught include: Practicum and Internship, Multicultural Counseling, Systemic family therapy, Substance Abuse and Addictions, Individual and Group Assessment, and Introduction to Counseling Theories and Techniques.
- Instructor September 2008 to June, 2009
I taught at the University of Cincinnati as an adjunct instructor; I taught General Psychology to students in science majors at the College of Applied Sciences.
- Teacher Training 2004-2007
I participated in the preparing future faculty program at the University of Cincinnati. The preparation helped me to develop a teaching philosophy, create a positive classroom atmosphere, course development, and understand the importance of faculty mentorship.
- Guest Teaching 2005, 2012, and 2013
I carried out guest lecturing at the West Africa Theological Seminary. I taught pastoral counseling to graduate students in seminary training. The classes included basic listening skills and servant leadership as central elements.

- Guest Teaching 2004
I carried out guest lecturing at the University of Cincinnati in spring, 2004. I taught a class on test in counseling to a group of first year masters students.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

- Net worker Nov. 2010 and January 2012
I organized and led a team of counseling students to Haiti to help with counseling needs following the 9.1 magnitude earthquake earlier in the year. I also took a group of counseling students and professionals to Cameroon, Africa to carry out counseling related services.
- Volunteer 2004-2009
Involvement with the homeless and recovering drug addicts at the City Gospel Mission in Over the Rhine, Cincinnati. It involves facilitating groups and teaching basic life skills about dealing with past abuse issues or pain that leads to drug use or self-medication. I also coordinated the counseling services at the facility as a paid staff from 2008-09.
- Volunteer 2000-2009
Involvement with the Cameroonian Family of Cincinnati as a member and carrying out volunteer counseling and leadership
- Net worker 2004-2005
I organized and led two groups of counselors and paraprofessionals on a two week trip to Nigeria, West Africa from Cincinnati, Ohio in August 2004 and September 2005 respectively. The professionals assessed counseling needs as well as provided counseling as needed.
- Team Leader 1991-1995
I took three cross-cultural trips to help the under privileged in three West African countries between 1991 and 1995. The countries include Chad, Niger and Ivory Coast.
