

RESPONDENT RIGHTS AND OPTIONS
MIDAMERICA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY SEXUAL HARRASSMENT POLICY

The following information provides a summary of your rights and options as a Respondent under the University's Sexual Harassment policy. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator if you have any questions about this information.

I. General Information

- Investigation and Adjudication Process. The University is required to follow the process set forth in the Policy when a formal complaint of Sexual Harassment is made.
- Presumption of Non-Responsibility. The fact that a complaint has been filed against you does not mean that the University has reached any conclusions about whether the alleged conduct has occurred. You are presumed not responsible for the alleged misconduct until a determination regarding responsibility is made final.
- Preservation of Evidence. It is extremely important that you preserve evidence showing the circumstances surrounding the allegations and complaint. This can include physical evidence (notes, calendars, receipts, clothing, etc.) as well as evidence in electronic formats (e.g., text messages, emails, photos, social media posts, screenshots, etc.).
- Options. When a complaint has been filed against you, you have several options, including, but not limited to:
  - Contacting parents or a relative
  - Seeking legal advice
  - Seeking personal counseling
  - Obtaining supportive measures
  - Filing a formal complaint (if applicable)
  - Receiving further information about the investigation and resolution process
- Supportive Measures. The Title IX Coordinator will contact you to discuss the availability of supportive measures, such as changes to your academic, living, transportation, or working situation. The University will make supportive measures available to you if they are reasonably available. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator if you want information about taking a leave of absence and related financial aid information.
- Counseling. The University recognizes that having a complaint filed against you, and the circumstances underlying that complaint, may cause elevated levels of stress and confusion. Counseling services are available to you through the MNU Student Counseling and Wellness Center. To make an appointment, please email wellness@mnu.edu or call 913-971-3297.

II. Institutional Procedures

- The Policy (available at: <https://www.mnu.edu/wp-content/uploads/2024/09/MNU-Title-IX-policy-2024-2025.pdf>)
- governs complaints of quid pro quo sexual harassment, hostile environment sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The procedures contained in the Policy:

- Provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution of the formal complaint, under the evidentiary standard of preponderance of the evidence, i.e., more likely than not that the alleged conduct occurred.
  - Are carried out by University officials who receive training on the issues related to quid pro quo sexual harassment, hostile environment sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking; the scope of the University's education programs or activities; how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability; and how to serve impartially, including avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias.
  - Provide you and the Complainant the right to have a support person/advisor accompany you to all aspects of the investigation and adjudication process. Except as explained in the Policy, a support person/advisor may not advocate for a party like an attorney would in court.
  - Ensure that both you and the Complainant are notified simultaneously in writing of the outcome of the investigation and resolution proceedings, the procedure to appeal the outcome, any change to the outcome that occurs before the outcome is final, and when such outcome becomes final.
  - Prohibit retaliation by the Complainant or anyone else against you for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX and its implementing regulations or because you have made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the Policy.
- If you desire to have a support person/advisor but cannot find someone that you are comfortable with, please contact the Title IX Coordinator for assistance in doing so.
  - You are prohibited from retaliating against the Complainant or against anyone else who participates in the investigation.

III. Possible Supportive Measures and Sanctions

- Supportive Measures. At any time during the investigation and adjudication process, the University may implement supportive measures for the parties or witnesses for the protection of those involved and to ensure equal access to the University's educational programs and activities. These may include separating the parties, placing limitations on contact between the parties, emergency suspension, or making alternative living, class-placement, or workplace arrangements. Such measures are not considered disciplinary in nature. The University will also take reasonable and legal action to implement any court restraining or no-contact order. Both parties must honor any supportive measures; violating them is a violation of University policy separate from the allegations of the complaint.
- Sanctions. If there is a finding that a violation of the Policy has occurred, sanctions may include counseling or training, separation of the parties, and/or discipline of the Respondent, including written reprimand, probation, suspension, demotion, termination, or expulsion.
- Remedies. The University will provide persons who have experienced Sexual Harassment ongoing remedies as reasonably necessary to restore or preserve access to the University's education programs or activities.

IV. Confidentiality

- Throughout the investigation and adjudication of the Formal Complaint, the University will maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to you, to the extent maintaining such confidentiality does not impair the University's ability to provide such measures.
- The University is required by law to make certain statistical disclosures of crimes reported to it. If a party reports an incident that is a crime, the University will make the statistical disclosure without disclosing personally identifying information about the parties.

V. Resources Available

MidAmerica Nazarene University is committed to supporting our community members wishing to access support services, including all parties and individuals involved in sexual harassment proceedings. To further this goal, the University offers support services for all community members, irrespective of whether an individual is formally participating in a sexual harassment proceeding or not. The University also maintains a list of local resources outside of the University setting that our community members can also access.

The lists below identify and provide contact information for such resources. If you have any questions or need assistance accessing these services, please contact: Richard Pacheco, Title IX Coordinator.
